

Hello there!

So, you've just opened up this PDF expecting to dive into the depths of my professional life, right? Well, I have a plot twist for you! Instead of giving you a typical, 'seen-it-a-million-times' type of CV, I've crafted a much more exciting experience. Picture a well-organized, interactive, and visually pleasing tour of my skills, experience, and personality.

Curious? I thought so!

Head on over to www.mafrasil.com, where I've turned the traditional CV concept upside down.

You'll find colors, animations, and a whole lot of my professional journey waiting for you. It's a tech lover's playground, a recruiter's gold mine, and most importantly, it's a fun break from the norm. Come and see for yourself!

P.S: Don't forget to enjoy the journey, and remember, the scrollbar is your friend!
